

By Vic Casamento, Staff Photographer

Season's First Debutantes Bow

FORTY-TWO GIRLS from 13 cities were presented at the Debutante Cotillion and Thanksgiving Ball which opened Washington's debut season. The dance, largest of the seasonal presentation parties, was held in the Sheraton-Park ballroom. The Washington debts, posing together here, are: First row, from left, Sallie Ann Curtin, Joanne Dempsey, Annie Laurie Martin, Dixie Baridon and Nanci Lee Edwards. Second row, from left Jane Judge Firey, Martha Elizabeth McLendon, Marilyn Blake Kendall, Sarah Anne Palmer Foret, Judith Collins. Third row, from left, Helen Marie Mahan, Mary Sewall Byrd, Carole Elizabeth Lund, Helen Elizabeth Kibler, Deborah Dorsey. Fourth row, from left: Katherine Ashley Sellers, Mary Rutherford Scott, and Mary Ellen Quayle.

Fifth row: Ginger Ann Poole, Melicy Martin Mott, Annabel Aires, Susan Schieffelin McCabe. Top row, from left: Catherine deWitt Cabell,

Barbara Starr Bullis, Maria Fernanda Hernandez. All the girls wore long white dresses and gloves for their presentation. In place of a bouquet they carried white tulle fans covered with red roses. The ballroom had been transformed into an Italian garden for the evening. Small fountains circled the walls, and smiles dripped from the balcony during the dance where all generations were represented.